

Please don't dilute IN's telephone privacy law. It is very effective. FCC should let local law prevail. Please don't allow the "existing customer" factor into the issue; please help protect the citizens to their right to privacy in their own homes. Don't don't let us be "invaded" in our own homes.